Google LLC et al., Case No. 3:21-cv-05227-JD WHEREAS Defendants have agreed that. stipulation, the Plaintiff States may produce to the the above-captioned MDL certain documents De States v. Google LLC, No. 03010 (D.D.C.) and C. (D.D.C.) (collectively, the "Search Matter"), exc. of the parties in the Search Matter;

NOW, THEREFORE, Defendants and the Plaintiff States hereby stipulate and agree, subject to the Court's approval, as follows:

- 1. To the extent the Plaintiff States seek to use in this MDL any of the documents produced by Defendants in the Search Matter that were not produced by Defendants during discovery in this MDL (hereinafter, "Search Matter Documents"), the Plaintiff States will produce such Search Matter Documents no later than 90 days before the first day of trial, and, if Plaintiffs plan to rely on the Search Matter Documents in connection with motions for summary judgment, Plaintiffs will produce such Search Matter Documents no later than two weeks before opening summary judgment briefs are due to the extent Plaintiffs can in good faith identify or anticipate using those documents. If Plaintiffs identify additional Search Matter Documents that they will rely on in connection with summary judgment after seeing opening briefs, Plaintiffs will produce those documents no later than two weeks before summary judgment opposition briefs are due. Plaintiffs States will adhere to the following protocol:
- a. The Plaintiff States shall not "dump" the Search Matter Documents into this MDL or otherwise give to the Private Plaintiffs unfettered access to documents produced in the Search Matter;
- b. The Plaintiff States may produce to the Private Plaintiffs Search Matter

 Documents which the Plaintiff States believe in good faith are reasonably related to their claims or

 Defendants' defenses in the MDL, and which the Plaintiff States reasonably believe may be used as evidence or as the basis for expert testimony in this MDL;
- c. Prior to any production by the Plaintiff States of Search Matter Documents in this MDL, the Plaintiff States shall give Google at least one week advance notice of such production, including a list of the beginning Bates numbers (from the Search Matter) planned for production in this MDL. If Defendants, in good faith, assert that the intended production is an untailored document "dump," or is otherwise improper, Plaintiff States agree to meet and confer in good faith with Defendants regarding the scope of the proposed production.
- d. The States shall provisionally label the Search Matter Documents with the highest level of protection under the operative protective order prior to disclosing or using the
